

Report on women development activities at R.C.T.I.,sola (2018)

1) Name of the Programme: Financial management

Date: 08/03/2018 (friday, 2:30 to 5:30pm)

Speaker: Ms. Sonal shah, financial consultant.

The Women Development Cell, R.C.T.I. had organized a program on financial management for female faculty members of the R.C.T.I. to bring out awareness in financial matters. The program was held on Women's Day.

2) Name of the Programme: Female safety riding of Two wheelers

Date: 29/06/2018 (Friday, 2:30 to 5:30pm)

Speaker: Honda Company

The Women Development Cell, R.C.T.I. had organized a program regarding the female safety riding of two wheeler within the premises of R.C.T.I. Mechanics from Honda company had taught finer driving skills on simulator as well as on hand practice to female students.

3) Name of the Program: Self-defense for girls

Date: 25/07/2018 (Wednesday, 2:00 to 4:00pm)

Speaker: Mr. Ujjawal Jayswal (Black belt holder)

The Women Development Cell, R.C.T.I. had organized an awareness program for the female students and faculties regarding the self-defense considering the recent spread of violence and abduction amongst the female community across the country. Mr. Ujjawal Jayswal, a Black Belt holder himself, from Rushiraj Foundation obliged our invitation by talking about the importance of self-defense and teaching many tricks and techniques for the girls to improve their self-defense.

4) Name of the Program: “Surviving chaos for girls”

Date: 27/07/2018 (Friday, 2:00 to 4:00pm)

Speaker: Mr. Palak Jain (psychological counselor)

Taking into consideration not only the physical well-being of the female students, another event for the psychological awareness was organized by Women Development Cell, R.C.T.I. Ms. Palak Jain, a well-known psychological counsellor was invited to talk about and interact with the female students about the surveillance of the girls psychology.

